Adjourns for the Day—Defendant Still Looks Upon Trial as a "Fizzle" and Seems Unconcerned.Remidji, Minn., Sept. 21.—Peter Maule, farmer, Tenstrike; Otto Smith, log scaler, Blackduck; E. J. Gould, merchant, Bemidji; John Thullen, farmer, town of Hornet, near Black duck, are the four talesmen accepted for the jury to try the case against Dr. D. F. Dumas, mayor of Cass Lake, charged with attempted arson in attempting to burn the postoffice building at Pupowsky.Of the regular panel of the jurors for this term of court but fifteen remained to be used as talesmen in the Dumas case. Ten of these were given a close questioning by Attorney E. E.
McDonald of Bemidji for the state and Judge Spooner and A. A. Andrews for the defendant, and after an all-day session four were chosen and there remain five to be examined, when the panel will be exhausted.It is admitted on all sides that the four men selected are splendid matterial for jurors, and the attorneys for both sides are well pleased.

Behan Not Yet on Scene.

Martin Behan, the state's principal witness at the preliminary hearing, was not here and the attorneys for the prosecution remain silent when asked as to his whereabouts. It is believed that he will arrive in company with the state fire marshal and his deputies, Sam F. Fullerton and Edward Heimbach.Dr. Dumas maintains a calm exterior and still says that he considers the trial a "fizzle."The examination of talesmen brought out much questioning by the defense as to what effect the newspaper reports of the arrest of Dr. Dumas and the preliminary hearing had on the men who had read them, and the examination along these lines was rigid by both sides.It developed that the state expects to consume about a week or ten days in the presentation of its evidence and that the complete trial probably will extend over a period of more than two weeks.

SPANISH REVOLT IS FIASCO

Government's Prompt Action Quells Mutinous Demonstrations.Madrid, Sept. 21.—The strike in many cities of Spain continue, but the revolution seems to have been completely confounded by prompt and energetic action of the government. The postponement of the general strike is regarded as indicating that the back of the movement is broken.So far as a censorship of great severity allows conditions to be known, there were no serious disorders in the provinces. Most of the principal agitators either were laid by the heels or their actions were crippled effectively.
Telegraphic and telephonic communication has been cut off from all suspected persons, including the Republican and Socialist leaders. Houses have been searched and arms seized, and the prisons are crowded with rioters and political suspects. The activity of the government seems to have had a salutary effect on the workmen and the authorities are confident that the general strike will prove more or less of a fiasco.

TO STOP EXODUS TO CANADA

Governors Discuss Plans at Conference in Chicago.Chicago, Sept. 21.—Governors John Shafroth, Colorado; James H. Hawley, of Idaho and J. M. Carey of Wyoming held a conference with A. B. Hullitt, commissioner general of the National Association of Immigration Officials, here. As members of the advisory board of the association, the three state executives discussed plans for stopping the emigration of Western farmers to Canada. The organization will spend $1,000,000 to advertise the advantages of various sections of the United States for home-making purposes.

WELLS WINS FROM ATTELL

American Featherweight Concedes Fifteen Pounds to Opponent.New York, Sept. 21.—Abe Attehl, the featherweight champion, tried the impossible by conceding about thirteen pounds in weight to the English lightweight champion, Matt Wells, at Madison Square Garden.Wells, being equally as clever as the American in every ring move, had the call almost from the start and won handily. It was a fast, clean and clever exhibition of boxing, with none of the bloody features of the Flynn-Morris contest in the same ring here last week.The fight was a handicap match and Attehl is given credit for the stand he made against his clever and heavier opponent.

OLYMPIC SUFFERS ACCIDENT

Collides With British Cruiser Shortly After Leaving Port.Coves, Sept. 21.—The White Star line steamer Olympic, the largest passenger carrying vessel in service, was in collision with the British protected cruiser Hawke near Osborne bay, on the north side of the Isle of Wight, and was so badly damaged that her captain, E. C. Smith, at first thought it would be necessary to beach her and made for the bank in the Coves roadstead. The closing of the collision doors stopped the rush of water and the vessel was then headed for Southampton.Later she was released and started back for Southampton, where she was safely docked.The Hawke was damaged, but less seriously, and anchored close by the steamer until the Olympic, cleared of the mud bank, set out on her return to Southampton. The Hawke then started southward under her own steam.STRIKE OF DETROIT CAR MEN IS ENDEDArbitration Is Resorted to and Trouble Speedily Settled.Detroit, Mich., Sept. 21.—At one minute before midnight the strike of the Detroit United railway employees was settled by arbitration. The employees accepted a new wage schedule of 23 cents an hour for the first six months, 27½ cents for the next year and 29½ cents thereafter. The rate was within a half cent of that originally demanded.Following an hour's secret conference between Judge Phelan, representing the striking employees, and the officials of the Detroit United Railway company Judge Phelan asked for a half hour's adjournment and immediately left the city hall to submit the proposition for settlement made by the company.General Manager Brooks of the Detroit United railway and George F.
Monaghan, attorney for the company, both felt reasonably certain cases would be running by morning at the latest.The conference followed one which lasted all afternoon and which was brought about through the efforts of Mayor Thompson, other leading city officials and officials of the Michigan state fair, which opened last Monday and which it was feared might be wrecked if the strike continued all week.Previous to the conference the difference in the wage scale demanded by the strikers and that offered by the company was 1 cent an hour.
The strikers wanted 24 cents for the first six months following a new agreement; 28 cents for the next year and 30 cents an hour thereafter.

SELL DEAD HORSES PICKLED

Wiley Makes Serious Charge Against Eastern Packing Concern.New York, Sept. 21.—An investigation by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley's inspection force, connected with the bureau of chemistry, has resulted in the filing of charges against a New Jersey rendering plant of having been engaged in preparing and shipping
"pickled horse meat" to Europe, where it was distributed for food purposes.
In the report it is brought out that the chief business of the firm has been the purchasing of the bodies of dead animals and live animals, which,
because of disease or age, are unfit for further domestic service.

caped in the direction of the Fox river.

NOT SO SANGUINEChamberlain Sees Troubles Ahead For Democrats.

HE LEANS TOWARD WILSON.

Fears Money Interests Would Oppose
New Jersey Governor and Thinks Bryan Influence Might Defeat Governor Harmon—Thinks Party Should Postpone Choosing Candidate.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 21.—[Special.]— Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, the man who was first chosen by the Oregon system, being elected by a Republican legislature, although a Democrat, because the people had declared for him at the primary, is one of the political observers who has not allowed himself to become overconfident of Democratic success next year.Senator Chamberlain has leanings toward Governor Wilson on account of his progressive policies, but he fears that the money interests might defeat Wilson for election. As to Governor Harmon, he fears that Bryan's influence will defeat him by reason of the intense opposition of the Nebraska man before the convention, just as the same influence put forth in the same way defeated Parke in 1904.The Oregon senator, however, believes that the Democrats are in a position to win and that a candidate can be selected who will carry the country. Senator Chamberlain lingered in Washington some time after the adjournment of the special session clearing up business and while doing so took stock of things political. He seems inclined to the opinion that the Democrats should not make hard and fast presidential arguments until after they see how the situation develops.

Money Has No Politics.

Senator Chamberlain is perfectly aware that money has no politics or political convictions. He had an experience which shows how financial men look at political conditions. During the campaign of 1908 he met the late E. H. Harriman."This is my year to be a Democrat," remarked the railroad magnate, "but I have looked up the matter and find that the supreme court is likely to be entirely reorganized during the next presidential term. I cannot trust Bryan to name a majority of that court." That is about the way the big financiers and railroad men look at politics. Party lines are not strong with them.

Not For Hitchcock.

Postmaster General Hitchcock may allow some of his enthusiastic employees to experiment with flying machines for carrying the mail, but he has not reached a stage where he will try it himself, nor will he undertake to have congress appropriate money for an aerial mail service. As the aeroplane is still largely experimental,
or uncertain, at least, it is not believed wise to try it in the mail service. A great many people would prefer to see the present service improved rather than to have experiments made with new devices.

Is a State a Debtor?

"Acknowledging the debt which Texas owes to Senator Bailey," began an interview with a Texan, who went on to state that the people of Texas were somewhat weary of the Bailey methods. Just how does a state owe a debt to any man? A state elects a man to the senate, or it may present him to the country for president, but it is not in his debt.Nations owe gratitude to great men.
Such acknowledgments are made to Washington and other Revolutionary heroes, to Lincoln and men of his time, but Virginia owes no debt to Washington nor Illinois to Lincoln in the sense which the Texan spoke of the debt of Texas to Bailey.But in the case of Senator Bailey it would seem that he owes a great deal to Texas and the people of that state who have stood by him for twenty years.

Delegates Hold On.

As long as New Mexico and Arizona remain territories Delegates Andrews and Cameron will continue in office.
The enabling acts which have been discussed in connection with the proposed constitutions of the new states contained a provision that the delegates to congress elected in 1908 should hold their positions until the territories became states.Neither Andrews nor Cameron was obliged to go before the people in the congressional contests in 1910 and if the territories should fail to come in under the new legislation they would not have to go before the people next year. But such a contingency is not anticipated. Both men are earnestly working for admission. Both expect to be elected to the senate when the states are admitted.

Mocha Coffee Cheap.

Although about 92 per cent of the coffee consumed in this country comes from Brazil, it cannot be on account of the high price of Mocha coffee which was once considered the best.
Our consul reports that Mocha coffee is sold at Aden at $3.25 to $3.75 per maund. A maund is twenty-eight pounds. It costs $4.87 per ton to ship coffee from Aden to New York. Certainly those who really want Mocha coffee could get it at those figures.

SIR ROBERT HART.

Reorganizer of Chinese Customs Service on Modern Lines Is Dead.

FAMOUS IRISHMAN IS DEAD

Sir Robert Hart, Who Modernized Chinese Customs, Expires in England.London, Sept. 21.—Sir Robert Hart, director general of customs in China from 1891 to 1908 and inspector general since 1863, is dead here. Sir Robert had been living in England since his retirement from the Chinese service because of ill health.Sir Robert Hart, who was an Irishman by birth, had been in the Chinese maritime customs service since 1859.
He was born in 1835.Sir Robert was the most potent link between China and the Western world.
He created its customs service; he gave China a comprehensive tariff, and was behind practically every commercial treaty that China made prior to 1903.He was secretary to the commission of the allies which met in Canton in 1858. He entered the Chinese customs service as deputy commissioner the next year. After being advanced to the post of inspector general of customs in 1863 he reorganized the service on modern lines.Chinese and Malay pirates at that time made Chinese waters unsafe to commerce. Hart equipped a large fleet of steamers to hunt the pirates down. He established lighthouses and later a postal service. In recognition of his innumerable services he received the greatest honors in the gift of the Chinese government.MYSTERY IN LOSS OF $10,000 PACKAGESent by Registered Mail From Minneapolis and Disappears.Minneapolis, Sept. 21.—Shipped in a registered package from the Northwestern National bank, Minneapolis, to the Sioux Falls Savings bank, Sioux Falls, S. D., $10,000 in currency has disappeared. It has not been received at the Sioux Falls bank.The money was shipped from the Minneapolis bank Tuesday. Postoffice records show it was properly registered, that it started the journey to Sioux Falls Monday night, that it should have arrived in Sioux Falls Tuesday morning. Officers of the Minneapolis bank said they had received word from the Sioux Falls bank that the money had arrived in Sioux Falls and had been turned over to the custody of the registry clerk of the Sioux Falls office. When the Sioux Falls bank called for it the money was gone.Postal authorities have been notified of the loss, which is one of the most mysterious in the annals of postal service robberies. The authorities are convinced there has been a robbery. They have searched every employee of the Sioux Falls office, but no arrests have been made.

NO TRACE OF MISSING MONEY

Detectives and Postoffice Inspectors
Are Instituting Search.Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 21.—Three postoffice inspectors have arrived on the scene to try and unravel the mystery surrounding the disappearance from the Sioux Falls postoffice of a package containing $10,000. It also is reported several detectives representing the company which had insured the money arrived to work on the case. The entire $10,000 was in $5 bills.Those working on the case are reticent and not the slightest information is given out as to the progress being made in unraveling the mystery.

This cablegram was received at the headquarters in this city of the Amer-trict of Western China. The cablegram was dated Sept. 19, and although it was not signed, officials of the so-one of their missionaries, as it was written in the private code of the so-

CAPTAIN J. C. FOGG DEAD

Former Minneapolis Man Who Once
Was Noted Navigator.Minneapolis, Sept. 21.—Charles J.
Fogg, a former Minneapolis man and a noted navigator, is dead at Los Angeles, Cal., at the age of eighty-seven years. Since he was a boy in charge of a New England coasting vessel he has been known as Captain Fogg. After fifteen years' residence here Captain Fogg left Minneapolis in 1890 and has since lived in Los Angeles.During the California gold fever in 1852 he headed an expedition trip from Boston around Cape Horn to San Francisco, reaching that city after a four months' voyage. Until 1860 he then operated a vessel on the Sacramento river.Captain Fogg is survived by his stepdaughter, Mrs. Emily Penno of Minneapolis, and a brother in Oakland, Cal.

Woman Defies Officers.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Threatening to shoot the first man who attempted to enter her residence, Mrs.
Toenges, wife of G. W. Toenges, former cashier of the Night and Day bank, held at bay for three hours officers who had come to arrest her husband. Toenges finally surrendered. He is accused of having accepted money deposits when he knew the bank was insolvent.

Will Beautify Rail Route.

Houghton, Mich., Sept. 21.—Miss Mildred McRea of Chicago, a landscape artist, has been engaged by the Copper Range Railroad company to improve the scenery along the Copper Range line. Ugly sand and stone banks will be dressed with vines and some masonry work will be done where Miss McRea deems it necessary.
Several parks will be established along the line.

Rusty Steel.

Steel which is rusty should be soaked for several hours with linseed oil and then polished with unslaked lime or emery powder, which is very easily worked if it is used on a cork which has been dipped in linseed oil.

Officers of Combinations Have Been Advised by Legal Counsel That Supreme Court's Interpretation of Sherman Law Is Not Likely to Be Rendered Less Severe by Anything
That Is to Happen in Near Future.Washington, Sept. 21.—There is evidence of a general movement among industrial combinations that are threatened with suits by the government to dissolve and reorganize under government approval, so that the new organizations will not contravene the Sherman anti-trust law. The conferences that have been taking place at the home of Attorney General Wickersham between counsel for the International Harvester company and Mr.
Wickersham, for the purpose of finding a plan of dissolution and reorganization by the harvester trust that will meet the requirements of the government, indicate the general trend among the industrial combinations.There were intimations at the department of justice that the steel trust and some of the less important combinations against which the government has already instituted proceedings, or is threatening to do so, are getting ready to put their houses in order.

Fear More Drastic Legislation.

It is said that the officers of many industrial combinations have been advised by their legal counsel that the interpretation put upon the Sherman law by the supreme court is not likely to be rendered less severe by anything that is to happen in the near future. In fact, all of the evidence points in the direction of legislation to make the law even more drastic.The house is overwhelmingly Democratic, and Democrats and progressive Republicans voting together can put through congress at the coming session and put up to President Taft some very drastic legislation.

CHAMP CLARK "COMES HOME"

Former Pupils Welcome Speaker at Lawrenceburg (Ky.) Station.Lawrenceburg, Ky., Sept. 21.— Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives, "came home" to make a speech in behalf of the state Democratic ticket. An escort composed of 100 men who were pupils of Clark when he taught school in Anderson county nearly forty years ago were at the station to welcome him.One of the features of the day was a parade participated in by nearly every man in the town.James B. McCreary, Democratic nominee for governor, Congressman Ollie James and others of national prominence were present. Mr. Clark was born in Anderson county near Lawrenceburg, sixty-three years ago, and was educated at Transylvania university, Lexington. Thirty-five years ago he removed with his family to Missouri, where he has since lived.

Head of Shaker Colony Held for Willful Murder.Kissimmee, Fla., Sept. 21.—Sensational evidence indicating that Sadie Marchant was not near death, as alleged, when chloroform was administered to her by Egbert Gillette, head of the Shaker colony at Ashton, was given before the coroner's jury that held Gillette on the charge of willful murder.Elizabeth Sears, who, by her confession, aided Gillette in administering the chloroform, was not mentioned in the verdict. Her case it is understood, will be presented to the grand jury for action. Gillette was taken to Tampa.

SAY COHEN ADMITS ROBBERY

Is Alleged to Have Confessed to St.
Paul Police.St. Paul, Sept. 21.—Ike Cohen of St. Paul, who was arrested by St.
Paul police in connection with the robbery last January of the Shubert theater, has made a confession, according to a dispatch received from Chicago. In it he implicates H. T.
Robinson, said to be a noted Chicago safe cracker; Denny La Bar, part owner of the Crystal theater of Minneapolis; a man named Harvey Leaster and himself.

What He Advised.

A young man unhelpfully married and practically penniless took his tale of woe to a prominent divorce attorney in Chicago and concluded with this:
"I'm too poor to pay him a fee for a divorce, but my wife makes my life miserable. After I got home at 11 o'clock in the evening I got no peace until 1 go to sleep. What would you advise?"
"After considering all the facts in your case," said the lawyer, "I would suggest that you get a job which requires you to work all night."—Ex-

verity allows conditions to be known,
their actions were crippled effectively.
Telegraphic and telephonic communi-
pected persons, including the Republican and Socialist leaders. Houses have been searched and arms seized,
and the prisons are crowded with riot-
workmen and the authorities are con-
prove more or less of a fiasco.

ence in Chicago.Chicago, Sept. 21.—Governors John Shaffroth, Colorado; James H. Hawley
of Idaho and J. M. Carey of Wyoming
held a conference with A. B. Hullitt, commissioner general of the National
stopping the emigration of Western
advantages of various sections of the
poses.

Fifteen Pounds to Opponent.New York, Sept. 21.—Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, tried
the impossible by conceding about
lish lightweight champion, Matt Wells,
at Madison Square Garden.Wells, being equally as clever as
Morris contest in the same ring here
and Atte'll is given credit for the
heavier opponent.

line steamer Olympic, the largest pas-
the north side of the Isle of Wight,
and was so badly damaged that her
started southward under her own
was settled by arbitration. The em-
was within a half cent of that originally demanded.Following an hour's secret conference between Judge Phelan, repre-
to the officers of the employees' union
by the company.General Manager Brooks of the Detroit United railway and George F.
Monaghan, attorney for the company, both felt reasonably certain cars
brought about through the efforts of
week.Previous to the conference the dif-
The strikers wanted 24 cents for the first six months following a new agree-
30 cents an hour thereafter.

tion by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley's inspec-
rendering plant of having been en-
it was distributed for food purposes.In the report it is brought out that
dead animals and live animals, which,
because of disease or age, are unfit
for further domestic service.

Bryan Influence Might Defeat Governor Harmon—Thinks Party Should Postpone Choosing Candidate.By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—
man who was first chosen by the Oregon system, being elected by a Republican legislature, although a Democrat, because the people had declared for
litical observers who has not allowed
Governor Harmon, he fears that Bryan's influence will defeat him by reason of the intense opposition of the Nebraska man before the convention,
in the same way defeated Parker in
lieves that the Democrats are in a po-
try. Senator Chamberlain lingered in
journment of the special session clear-
fast presidential arguments until after they see how the situation develops.Money Has No Politics.
Senator Chamberlain is perfectly
men look at political conditions. Dur-
presidential term. I cannot trust
with them.Not For Hitchcock.
aeroplane is still largely experimental,
worthy to try it in the mail service. A
new devices.Is a State a Debtor?
him to the country for president, but
it is not in his debt.Nations owe gratitude to great men.
Such acknowledgments are made to
heroes, to Lincoln and men of his time,
but Virginia owes no debt to Washington nor Illinois to Lincoln in the sense which the Texan spoke of the debt of Texas to Bailey.But in the case of Senator Bailey it would seem that he owes a great deal
years.Delegates Hold On.
As long as New Mexico and Arizona
should hold their positions until the
the territories should fall to come in
states are admitted.

from Brazil, it cannot be on account
which was once considered the best.
maund. A maund is twenty-eight
pounds. It costs $4.57 per ton to ship
coffee from Aden to New York. Cer-
coffee could get it at those figures.

Service on Modern Lines Is Dead.

nese Customs, Expires in England.London, Sept. 21.—Sir Robert Hart,
director general of customs in China
eral since 1903, is dead here. Sir Robert had been living in England since his retirement from the Chinese service because of ill health.Sir Robert Hart, who was an Irish-
maritime customs service since 1859.
He was born in 1835.Sir Robert was the most potent link between China and the Western world.
of the allies which met in Canton in
toms in 1863 he reorganized the service on modern lines.Chinese and Malay pirates at that
down. He established lighthouses and
of his innumerable services he re-
$10,000 PACKAGESent by Registered Mail From Min-
a registered package from the North-
Falls, S. D., $10,000 in currency has
at the Sioux Falls bank.The money was shipped from the
should have arrived in Sioux Falls Tuesday morning. Officers of the Min-
and had been turned over to the custody of the registry clerk of the Sioux
bank called for it the money was gone.Postal authorities have been notified of the loss, which is one of the
are convinced there has been a robbery. They have searched every em-
arrests have been made.

tery surrounding the disappearance
is reported several detectives repre-
$5 bills.Those working on the case are retic-
made in unraveling the mystery.

Was Noted Navigator.Minneapolis, Sept. 21.—Charles J.
Fogg, a former Minneapolis man and a noted navigator, is dead at Los Angeles, Cal., at the age of eighty-seven
fifteen years' residence here Captain Fogg left Minneapolis in 1890 and has since lived in Los Angeles.During the California gold fever in
from Boston around Cape Horn to San
four months' voyage. Until 1860 he
then operated a vessel on the Sacra-
stepdaughter, Mrs. Emily Fenno of Minneapolis, and a brother in Oakland, Cal.

Woman Defies Officers.

ening to shoot the first man who attempted to enter her residence, Mrs.
Teonges, wife of G. W. Teonges, for-
band. Teonges finally surrendered.
He is accused of having accepted money deposits when he knew the bank was insolvent.

Will Beautify Rail Route.

Mildred McRea of Chicago, a land-
banks will be dressed with vines and
where Miss McRea deems it necessary.
along the line.

has been dipped in linseed oil.

Advised by Legal Counsel That Supreme Court's Interpretation of
national Harvester company and Mr.
Wickersham, for the purpose of find-
ceedings, or is threatening to do so,
in order.

industrial combinations have been advised by their legal counsel that the interpretation put upon the Sherman
thing that is to happen in the near fu-
to make the law even more drastic.
The house is overwhelmingly Democratic, and Democrats and progres-
some very drastic legislation.

Lawrenceburg (Ky.) Station.Lawrenceburg, Ky., Sept. 21.—
ago were at the station to welcome him.One of the features of the day was a parade participated in by nearly
nominee for governor, Congressman
was born in Anderson county near Lawrenceburg, sixty-three years ago,
and was educated at Transylvania uni-

leged, when chloroform was adminis-
fession, aided Gillette in administering the chloroform, was not mentioned in the verdict. Her case, it is un-
jury for action. Gillette was taken to Tampa.

Paul Police.St. Paul, Sept. 21.—Ike Cohen of
St. Paul, who was arrested by St.
cording to a dispatch received from
Chicago. In it he implicates H. T.
neapolis; a man named Harvey Lester and himself.

in the evening I get no peace until I

BILLY SMITH HANGS HIMSELF IN JAIL

Arrested on Charge of Taking $30 From Till of Earl Saloon Tuesday Morning

Used Leather Belt at Four This Morning to Hang Himself From the Grating of His Cell

Suspended from a height of about five feet, with his knees tightly drawn up, police officials this morning cut down the body of Billy Smith at the city lockup who had hung himself early this morning. He used a leather belt to accomplish his purpose.

On Tuesday morning between the hours of 2:30 and 3 o'clock, the till of the Earl saloon was tapped to the extent of $30. Mr. Anderson promptly notified the police and Smith was arrested.

Wednesday morning at about five o'clock Capt. Hurley arrested Smith on suspicion at the National hotel and took him to jail. The man wished to know what he was charged with, but Capt. Hurley told him he would find out later. A jack knife was found on his clothes and was taken from him.

At about 6:30 Wednesday night he confessed the robbery and stated that another man was also implicated. Entrance had been gained in the saloon by cutting a hole in the rear end of the building and near a window.

The man did not seem excited last night and no one had an idea he would commit such a rash act as self destruction.

Early this morning he was discovered hanging from the grating of his cell and the coroner was promptly notified. The body was still warm when cut down, leading Coroner Dean to suppose that the act was probably committed about four o'clock this morning.

He is about five feet five inches tall, of short, stocky build and weighing about 150 pounds. He has brown hair and gray eyes. A distinctive mark is the scar about an inch and a half long, extending perpendicularly from a point under his right eye.

In his pockets were found a Lake Seams' Union card giving the name of Pat Driscoll, dated April 27, 1911, and signed by N. McLeod, district No. 8. There was also a slip of paper bearing the name of P. F. Schuch, Little Falls, probably a memorandum of a man from whom he expected employment in the woods.

In his pockets he also had small lead pencils, scraps of newspaper clippings, and a rabbit's hind foot. He wore a brown suit with light stripes, a soft, felt hat, cotton shirt, and small blue, four in hand tie. While at the morgue some said he had been last working at Crosby, but no one has been found who is intimately acquainted with him or who knows if his real name is Smith, Driscoll or something else.

The crime of robbing a saloon of $30 was not such a serious offense in itself and it is thought that the reason for his suicide was that he may have been implicated in other or more serious depredations. His body will remain at the morgue a week and efforts will be made by the coroner to trace his antecedents. No inquest will be held.

SMITH MAY BE "JIM" OF ANOKA

Sheriff of Anoka County Has Been Wired For Description of Man Who Killed Boltons

LOCAL POLICE ARE INTERESTED

Special Agent E. J. Williams, of the Northern Pacific Railway, Examines the Body

The identity of the man lying cold in death at the Losey & Dean morgue is the cause of much speculation. Police officials are greatly interested in the case.

The Dispatch wired the St. Paul Dispatch and the Minneapolis Tribune and from the meager descriptions they had on hand the body at the morgue seemed to tally with that of the alleged murderer of the Bolton family near Anoka.

E. J. Williams special agent of the Northern Pacific railway, examined the corpse very closely and found in addition to the scar on the right cheek an old scar on his neck, extending from the back of the neck to a point near his chin.

It seems that the only means of identification of the farm hand has been by means of the scar on the neck and until a fuller description is obtained the matter will remain in doubt.

HARVEY SPENCER MURDERED AT FARGO

Two Men Waylay, Rob and Kill the Young Man in the North Dakota Town Last Night

BRAINERD DISPATCH TRACED UP HIS PARENTS AFTER OTHERS HAD GIVEN UP THE TASK

Harvey Spencer, aged 25 years and single, was waylaid and robbed at Fargo, N. D., last night, and after taking all the young man's money his assailants turned on him and murdered him in cold blood.

His body was found early this morning and the chief of police of Fargo wired to Brainerd asking if any one knew of a man of that name.

On his body was found a Brotherhood of American Yeoman pin and with that and the name of Spencer as a clue the writer got busy and within 15 minutes had the parents of the murdered man located.

Harvey Spencer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer, living about two miles south of Merrifield. He has regularly gone to the Dakota wheat fields to work during harvest time. He was a member of the Yeoman lodge at Merrifield and his parents always took care to see that his payments to the order were made regularly.

The story of the finding of the body and the little lodge pin on the lapel of his coat shows of what great value it is to belong to a fraternity. It gave the clue to locate his parents for Mrs. John W. Gaffney, a Yeoman deputy and prominent lodge member was acquainted with them. The pin attracted the attention of the Fargo chief of police and through an excusable error of the long distance operator at Fargo was first reported as a "Homestead" pin, of which order there are no members in this city.

The case also shows the courtesy and kindness of the operators of the Fargo and Brainerd exchanges who did all they could to locate the murdered man's parents and gave the Dispatch, on the order of the Fargo chief of police, all possible information.

The Brainerd exchange then telephoned to Merrifield and sent a messenger two miles south to the farm of the aged parents and told them of the death of their son.

A late telegram from Fargo states that the murder of Harvey Spencer came as the climax of the numerous holdups which have occurred in Fargo and Moorhead, Minn., recently.

Spencer and Chris Johnson were returning about eleven o'clock from a meeting of the Yeoman lodge and when in front of the Nichols & Shepherd Threshing Machine company's warehouse two men jumped out of the shadow of the building and presented revolvers.

The holdups demanded "hands up." Spencer and Johnson started to run instead of complying with the demand, and one of the robbers fired, the bullet striking Spencer in the stomach. He died in a few minutes of his wound.

Johnson escaped and notified the police who were soon on the ground and started a search for the murderers. Several suspicious appearing persons have been arrested, but it is doubtful if the right parties are in custody.

Johnson describes the robbers as both being large, wearing black masks over their faces and the small, black caps usually worn by railway engineers.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Suspended from a height of about five feet, with his knees tightly drawn up, police officials this morning cut down the body of Billy Smith at the city lockup who had hung himself early this morning. He used a leather belt to accomplish his purpose.

On Tuesday morning between the hours of 2:30 and 3 o'clock, the till of the Earl saloon was tapped to the extent of $30. Mr. Anderson promptly notified the police and Smith was inspected.

Wednesday morning at about five o'clock Capt. Hurley arrested Smith on a suspicion at the National hotel and took him to jail. The man wished to know what he was charged with, but Capt. Hurley told him he could find out later. A jack knife was found on his clothes and was taken from him.

At about 6:30 Wednesday night he confessed the robbery and stated that another man was also implicated. Entrance had been gained in the saloon by cutting a hole in the rear end of the saloon near a window.

The man did not seem excited last night and no one had an idea he could commit such a rash act as self destruction.

Early this morning he was discovered hanging from the grating of his cell and the coroner was promptly notified. The body was still warm when cut down, leading Coroner to suppose that the act was probably committed about four o'clock this morning.

He is about five feet five inches tall, of short, stocky build and weighing about 150 pounds. He has brown hair and gray eyes. A distinctive mark is the scar about an inch and a half long, extending perpendicularly from a point under his right eye.

In his pockets were found a Lake Champlain Union card giving the name of Pat Driscoll, dated April 27, 1911, and signed by N. McLeod, district No. 8. There was also a slip of paper bearing the name of P. F. Josch, Little Falls, probably a memorandum of a man from whom he expected employment in the woods.

In his pockets he also had small lead pencils, scraps of newspaper clippings, and a rabbit's hind foot.

He wore a brown suit with light stripes, a soft, felt hat, cotton shirt, and small blue, four in hand tie. While at the morgue some said he had been last working at Crosby, but no one has been found who is intimately acquainted with him or who knows if his real name is Smith, Driscoll or something else.

Harvey Spencer, aged 25 years and single, was waylaid and robbed at Fargo, N. D., last night, and after taking all the young man's money his assailants turned on him and murdered him in cold blood.

On his body was found a Brotherhood of American Yeoman pin and with that and the name of Spencer as a clue the writer got busy and within 15 minutes had the parents of the murdered man located.

Harvey Spencer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer, living about two miles south of Merrifield. He has regularly gone to the Dakota wheat fields to work during harvest time. He was a member of the Yeoman lodge at Merrifield and his parents always took care to see that his payments to the order were made regularly.

The story of the finding of the body and the little lodge pin on the lapel of his coat shows of what great value it is to belong to a fraternity. It gave the clue to locate his parents for Mrs. John W. Gaffney, a Yeoman deputy and prominent lodge member was acquainted with them. The pin attracted the attention of the Fargo chief of police and through an excusable error of the long distance operator at Fargo was first reported as a "Homesteader" pin, of which order there are no members in this city.

The case also shows the courtesy and kindness of the operators of the Fargo and Brainerd exchanges who did all they could to locate the murdered man's parents and gave the Dispatch, on the order of the Fargo chief of police, all possible information.

The Brainerd exchange then telephoned to Merrifield and sent a messenger two miles south to the farm of the aged parents and told them of the death of their son.

A late telegram from Fargo states that the murder of Harvey Spencer came as the climax of the numerous holdups which have occurred in Fargo and Moorhead, Minn., recently.

Spencer and Chris Johnson were returning about eleven o'clock from a meeting of the Yeoman lodge and when in front of the Nichols & Shepherd Threshing Machine company's warehouse two men jumped out of the shadow of the building and presented revolvers.

The holdups demanded "hands up." Spencer and Johnson started to run instead of complying with the demand, and one of the robbers fired, the bullet striking Spencer in the stomach. He died in a few minutes of his wound.

Johnson escaped and notified the police who were soon on the ground and started a search for the murderers. Several suspicious appearing persons have been arrested, but it is doubtful if the right parties are in custody.

ANSWER

One—the flat, sad, sickly looking one—was baked with poor baking powder; possibly the high-priced kind—possibly the cheap, big can kind. It denotes a lack of leavening gas, or an uneven distribution of same—or both. The other—the large, light, fluffy one—was prepared with Calumet Baking Powder, and denotes the never-failing, delicious baking that always results from its use.

Calumet does not cost as much as the high price baking powder, but it is very much superior in every way—it is purer—more reliable—more healthful. Here are the reasons:

All baking powders undergo a chemical change in the process of baking. You do not take it into the stomach in the same form as it is in the can. For example: When you use Cream of Tartar Baking Powder you get Rochelle Salts in your food, because the Cream of Tartar during this reaction turns into Rochelle Salts. This, as you know, is a drug, and should be taken only under doctor's orders.

Calumet is so carefully and scientifically prepared that the neutralization of the ingredients is absolutely perfect.

That it is absolutely pure and of highest quality is proven by the fact that of Rev. W. J. Smith

A conference of the officers, missionaries and friends of the American Sunday School union of the northern district embracing Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana was held at Grand Forks, N. D., on September 16 to 20.

Thirty-one missionaries were present from the three states and the meetings were held in the Y. M. C. A. building. Those attending from Brainerd were Rev. W. J. Smith and Rev. R. W. Roberts, the evangelist.

The object of the society is to establish and equip a Sunday school in every community where there are no churches or religious services, to publish and circulate moral and religious literature of a Scriptural basis. It works also to promote co-operation among Christians, and evangelistic work in rural communities, and to improve union Sunday schools by educating teachers and workers in better methods of conducting such schools.

In the northern district there are some 30 missionaries doing home missionary work for the country districts. Last year they opened 282 schools where 8,482 pupils were enrolled. Churches of five denominations have developed from these schools during the past twelve months.

At the conference Rev. W. J. Smith of Brainerd, had charge of the devotional hour on Monday morning. On Wednesday evening Rev. R. W. Roberts, state evangelist of this city delivered an address on "Our Endeavors Along Evangelistic Lines."

The Grand Forks Daily Herald has the following in reference to the Monday meeting: "The conference

From a large experience in the book business, Dr. Williams addressed himself to the importance of distributing religious reading.

Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits particularly those who have been careless, whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Try as you will, after one application of Danderine you cannot find any dandruff or a loose or falling hair, and your scalp will never itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair sprouting all over the scalp.
